Look for the shelves labeled NEW BOOKS in the adult section of the library. There you will find the following:

- 1) Three copies of the Lutheran Study Bible, copyright 2009 – A few of us at Reformation have had our own personal copy of this Bible for a year, and we have found the many explanations located in the margins to be a terrific help in reading and studying our Bible.
- 2) Other recent purchases and gently used books donated by Reformation members - One new title is Emerging Ministry: Being Church Today.

In the Children's section of the library we now have six copies of the Spark Story Bible. This Bible contains 150 of the most popular Bible stories for pre-school children through grade two. Another title to check out is This Is The Earth That God Made, a rhyming picture story in the style of The House that Jack Built. It also suggests ways to explore God's world, things to make and amazing facts about God's World. We also have a couple books about baptism geared to young children.

Health Ministry—Care Notes

Look and see what's NEW in our Narthex! We now have a display of Care Notes from Abbey Press. Perhaps you've seen them at other churches like I have and wondered why we didn't have them too. Cindy Shirey was thinking the same thing, and we finally acted on our "passion" which is helping people in their times of trouble and loss.

The booklets are free, and we encourage you to take what will be helpful to you and your family. If you see a topic that may help a friend, please feel free to take one along to share.

Care notes cover a wide range of health and loss issues, so if you don't see one that applies to your situation, please speak to myself or Cindy. We did order some extra stock and may have what you are looking for. If not, we have the complete list of titles and would be happy to order whatever is needed.

Serving Jesus,
Judy Plica

Church Volunteers Booklet - Correction

The counters for August are Russ Clauser, Gerry Wegman and JoAnn Smith. The counters for September are: Harriet Clauser, Joanne Scattergood and Patti Kline. Sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused you.

Please join us for a one-day Bible Study Retreat this summer entitled "Pray Always". The details follow below. All women of the church are welcome! The Bible Study is already available online at www.lutheranwomantoday.org. Of course, it's also available in the Lutheran Woman Today magazine.

The second session of the Bible Study is entitled "Waiting with Patience and Hope" – the relationship between waiting and prayer. We wait for letters and news from our scholarship girls in Utanziwa – news comes so slowly and waiting is difficult! The Bible Study suggests using Psalm 130 as a prayer for waiting and I would ask all of you to pray for the scholarship mission using Psalm 130:5-6.

JUST A REMINDER: We will not meet for evening Bible Study in June, July, and August. Our next Monday evening Bible Study will be September 13th.

The 38 quilts for Lutheran World Relief, which were blessed in April, have been delivered to the warehouse in New Windsor, Maryland by St. Luke's Lutheran Church. St. Luke's will be doing another mission service trip in November and offered to take our quilts again, so keep quilting!

We also need help with our website. Call the church office with any time that you can help.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

It is hard to believe we are coming to the end of another Sunday School year. We had a wonderful year full of many wonderful activities. thanks to all of our dedicated teachers. As we come to a close, we will be ending the Sunday School year , June 6th, with a kickoff to VBS. We visit the African wild and preview some craft, science, and game activities. We hope you will join us for this fun day. Remember the date.... July 26th through the July 30th. More info to follow in the July/August newsletter.

We would also like to thank Alison Larson and Audrey DiGuardi for their service to the Sunday School program. After teaching for ten years, they have decided to take a break (a well-deserved one). We thank them for their dedication to the youth of our church.

Thanks again to Don Smith for being a guest teacher in the adult class. We appreciate his dedication and time to teaching and planning his special Bible studies.

We hope you have a wonderful and restful summer.

Please note on the Sunday School newsletter sent to all students, the date is wrong for the church picnic on the side column. It should state June 13th. Sorry for any inconvenience.

FLOWERS

Please consider sponsoring flowers. Carol Shoppes Florist, 320 W. Neversink Rd, Reading, PA. is doing a wonderful job decorating the altar. The price is $25.00 per vase. Please use an envelope and mark it flowers for the Sunday you have chosen to decorate our church with fresh flowers in honor of or in memory of someone. We would like to avoid sending out bills for the flowers. Please pay for your flowers in the month you are providing them. Thank you. The chart is on the bulletin board outside the library. June 20th, June 27th and July 11 are open dates; only one vase per service is needed. Thank you for your help in this matter.

(W)holy, (W)holy, (W)holy Health, Healing and Wholeness Article

June 2010

“Be patient, therefore, beloved,, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious crop from the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and late rains. You also must be patient. Strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near.”(James 5:7-8, NRSV)

It has been said that some feel closest to God when they are working the land, yet farming can be a stressful and dangerous occupation. Those of us who live in cities and towns, may take for granted, the patience and sacrifice that goes into raising the produce, milk and meat that we consume. Farming is tough, at times unpredictable labor, and the fruits of it are often undervalued on the open market.

Recently CNN Money (4/8/2010) reported that according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, farming is in the top five most dangerous occupations in this country. Not only are there dangers in using farm machinery, but economics, and stretches of bad weather can push the farmer toward the breaking point. When money gets tight, repairs are let go, and safety equipment is not retro-fitted, putting the farmer and his/her family in further danger. Farmers are exposed to harmful chemicals and toxic fumes from silage and manure pits. They run an increased risk of malignant melanoma due to sun exposure. Yet every day – 365 days a year, they continue their work. Some say it is in their blood – it is all they have ever dreamed of doing. They see God’s handiwork when they look out over their fields, crops, and their livestock. The reality is that our farmers often keep their suffering silent, and we become willing accomplices, by adding to the financial squeeze - after all, who wants to pay an extra fifty cents for a gallon of milk or a dozen eggs!?! It’s time we wake up!

In June of 2009, Miles Moffeit, of the Denver Times, reported that Seeds of Hope, a crisis hotline serving farm-belt states, had already logged 11,000 calls since the beginning of that year. Farm Aid’s Farmer Resource Network and Hotline (1-800-FARM-AID) directs farmers to access mental health and suicide prevention assistance all over the country - depression and suicide rates among farmers have increased. What are the signs of depression? They can include: persistent sadness or anxiety; increase or decreased appetite; physical symptoms such as headaches, digestive disorders, chronic pain; irritability, restlessness; feelings of guilt/ worthlessness; hopelessness; sleeping too much or too little; loss of interest in once pleasurable activity; difficulty concentrating and making decisions; thoughts of death or suicide – any of these symptoms lasting longer than two weeks need to be followed-up with a visit to a healthcare provider.

How can the farmer better manage the stress? By openly discussing or venting about problems, concerns and fears – to friends, extended family, church members, formal and informal support networks. Recognize that he/she is never too old to learn – keeping updated on farming practices, biotechnology, and marketing - by reading, searching the internet, contacting the county or state Extension office. Make time for family – take a yearly vacation, attend children’s sporting events and teacher conferences. Meet as a family on Saturday or Sunday evening, and plan out the upcoming week’s work schedule. Get regular exercise, stretch and walk; listen to music; enjoy a hobby. Lower health risks by take extra precautions to combat sun exposure – use sunscreen of at least 15 spf, wear a brimmed had that shades eyes, ears and neck – wear sunglasses with a UV rating of at least 100. When the tension becomes too much – get some outside help. Contact your healthcare provider, speak to your pastor or parish nurse.

What can “we”, the consumer do? As much as possible, we can buy directly from the farmer. We can listen. We can advocate for by supporting realistic and just pricing of his/her goods and services. And we can pray – for good weather, bountiful harvest, healthy animals, much needed rest, and regularly give thanks for those who have played such a huge role in feeding us every single day. Summer Blessings!

Debbie Best, Family Life Services, Diakon Lutheran Social Ministries

Reformation Notes of Thanks

Dear members of Reformation, I'd like to thank everyone for sending me the finals care package. I look forward to that every semester, and it's sad to think this is my last one! The snacks were great, and should be gone sometime very soon. It feels good knowing so many people are thinking about you when you're thinking you may need a prayer to get you through. Maybe I'll go to grad school next year just for another care package... Thanks again, Andy Dobroskey

A special thank you to Judy Dorner for paying for the new linens for our communion cup tables. Your gift is appreciated.
Serving Jesus, Judy Plica (Altar Guild Chair)

Dear Reformation, Thank you so much for the finals study—kit and the kind note. The treats and supplies helped me as I prepared for exams and for projects last week and now, as I kick back and wait for graduation, I am still enjoying the snacks. I hope to see you all this summer!
Many thanks, Angie Smith

I want to thank all my friends at Reformation for the prayers, cards, calls, visits and get well wishes you gave me after my surgery. It meant so much to me knowing you were thinking of me! I'm getting better every day. Thanks again.
Blanche Link

Dear Members of The Partners in Prayer, Thank you for including my mother in your prayers during her recent illness and then for including my family and me in your prayers as we mourn the death of my mother. Having the support of my Reformation church family has helped me tremendously during this sad time. With deep appreciation. Terri Adams

Reformation Family, Thank you for all the cards, thoughts and prayers for Administrator week. It was very nice to hear from you all. Thanks again. Cindy Shirey

Dear Pastor Steve and Reformation Family, Thank you very much for the "Finals Survival" box and your prayers during my exam period. It'll really nice to know someone is thinking of you during a stressful time like this. Sincerely, Brian Mervine

Dear Reformation Family, Thank you so much for the great care package! It certainly helped me during finals! Steve Pitch for the Pantry at Exeter May days brought in $238. Thank to all who helped make this happen.

From My Heart to Yours

Here's a question for you that I don't think you can possibly answer no to. Can you afford to give nine minutes a day to yourself for spiritual refreshment and renewal??? Recently I was on retreat and this was a parting "challenge" from our retreat leader. Caution! It is a very simple practice but has powerful side effects—calm, peace, refreshment and restoration, to name a few.

Want to try it? Commit three minutes, three times a day and find a quiet place (the first challenge!) to sit. Relax! (the next challenge) Close your eyes and slowly breath in and out. As you breathe in, say to yourself "come unto me" (Jesus) and on your out breath say to yourself "I (Jesus) will give you rest." Matthew 11:28. Repeat until the time has passed. Another caution! You will find yourself doing this for more than three minutes because it is such a blessing!

We were reminded on retreat that Scripture refers to breath as the Holy Spirit of God. For one, that makes my breath a whole lot more precious! I not only need it for physical life— - but also for spiritual life.

Other Scripture that I've found works well. I'm sure you have many of your own favorites you could try. Share them with me sometime—I'm willing to try new ones!

In breath: "Be still and know"
Out breath: "that I am God". Psalm 26:10a

In breath: "The Lord is my Shepherd"
Out breath: "I have everything I need". Psalm 23:1 (New living Translation)

In breath: "I an with you always"
Out breath: "until the end of the age". Matthew 28:20b

I invite you to join me by giving yourself this gift of time—only nine minutes a day! Be Blessed!

Serving Jesus,

Judy Plica

Picnics

Picnics are friendly gathering
Outside, in a park or yard,
By the side of the road
In a grove of trees.

Picnics are shared experiences
Shared food, shared fun and learning.
They bring together families,
Friends, neighbors and even strangers.

Picnics are century-old gathering
For Christ picnicked on the hillside
And on the shore of Genesaret.
A picnic may be only one, or five thousand He fed.

By Catharine Reed

Adopt-A-Flower Bed

Remember to sign up for Adopt-A-Flower Bed. This bed will be yours to care for during the spring and summer months.

Congratulations

Congratulations to all the 2010 High School and College graduates. Well done and best to you in all your future endeavors!

More Reformation Notes of Thanks

Dear Reformation Family, I just wanted to let you all know that I got my care package for finals the other day in the mail, and I was super excited! After so many years of putting them together and sending them off, it was strange and exciting to be on the receiving end. :) Thank you SO MUCH for the package- when I realized what it was I couldn't stop smiling. I talked to KC Kohler about it, and it really made both of our days. I hope all of you are doing well back at Reformation! Thank you all, again, for the package. I loved it! Sincerely, Erin Donovan

Dear Reformation Family, Thank you so much to the senior high Sunday School class and everyone else who helped to provide the great finals care package! As a high schooler, I always thought the care packages were a wonderful idea and couldn't wait until the day that I had college finals. Now that, that day has come I could do without finals, but the care package was even more exciting to receive! It was so nice to know we are still in your thoughts and prayers when we are away from home. The study supplies and food were a definite help during my hectic finals week. Thanks again for the package and for your prayers, and I look forward to being back at Reformation for the summer! Peace, KC Kohler

Fellow Disciples in Faith – Overcomers Tabernacle of Praise

Another group of Christians will be using our building twice a week. A small congregation led by Pastor Israel Oluwasegun Adetula and Pastor Florence Abeke-Nike Adetula will be using the choir room as worship space on Sunday afternoons and for a prayer meeting on Friday evening. We have been invited to attend their service, and they may also attend ours from time to time. Their worship is rooted in non-denominational West African Christian services, and so they promise there will be singing, dancing and drums.

Church Website Pictures

We are looking for pictures of people and current or past activities for the Church website. If you have digital pictures, you can easily send them to us at: mail@reformationlutheran.org. We will format, label and post them to the website as appropriate. If you have traditional film-developed pictures, we can also scan and post them to the website, but this takes a little longer to process. All we need are the pictures [digital or traditional], identifying information about the picture[s], your name and a telephone number to return them to you as needed. Be a part of the “God is on the Loose” activities at Reformation Lutheran Church.

TOGETHER TIME

We will be sharing fellowship time once again during the summer worship services. Sunday morning worship will be at 9:00 a.m., and we would like to enjoy fellowship 30 minutes before service and 30 minutes after service. Committee liasons signed up at congregation council to supply the refreshments for the individual Sundays. This list will be posted on the kiosk.
